11th Sunday in Ordinary Time - 18th June 2023

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for being part of this unique and beautiful community. Whenever I walk down our church aisle after Mass, I am always grateful not so much because of the red carpet but the variety of persons that look into my face. In the last 2 years, I have appreciated the value we are as a multicultural community. I recall that in 2021, I invited you “to take some time to think and to acknowledge the beauty of the cultural diversity always present in the liturgies that we celebrate here.” It has been my strong believe that our cultural diversity will offer us the horizon of meaning and a renewed sense of identity of who we have become in this community. In 2022, I acknowledged, “we have been a multicultural community for a long time and we can only get better in our cross-cultural enriching of one another.” In all honesty, I feel that I belong here because you are here.

Our parish Multicultural awareness and celebration have moved from one Mass event to a whole weekend celebration. This weekend offers us the opportunity to bring something of our cultural background and tradition to share with our current parish community. For me it is a time to appreciate who we have become and can become moving forward. It is my prayer that this 2023 Multicultural Awareness Weekend will inspire and challenge us towards building an Intercultural Community. It is my dream that we grow to become part of one another’s story and culture.

Congratulations to all our children who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation on Thursday 22nd June 2023. We welcome Archbishop Mark Coleridge to our parish and hope that his visit will foster the awareness of the Archdiocese’s Apostolic Priorities in our Parish. Thank you to Noel Arceo, Tanya Robertson and the Sacramental Program team who have been teaching our candidates over the past 2 months. All are invited to attend the celebration of this year’s Sacrament of Confirmation.

God Bless, Fr Enoch Iheme

WITH LAMPS ABLAZE - Linda Bailey’s SUMMIT 2023 Experience

Deciding to attend Summit 23, I was expecting to hear some interesting speakers and to come away with some good ideas – the reality of the Summit was so much more than I could ever have imagined. Archbishop Mark Coleridge set the scene for the Summit with his opening address where he shared his long-term goals and vision for the Archdiocese. In the following days, we heard from a number of international, inter-state and local speakers who provided ideas and inspiration on how the Archdiocesan parishes and groups could work towards implementing this vision set in the 7 Apostolic Priorities.

I feel incredibly blessed to have been at this event where I was surrounded by people who are passionate about their faith and about reshaping our Archdiocese for the future under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. It was incredibly moving to share this experience – to pray, worship, and be inspired alongside this group of people. How amazing it would have been for our Parish if more of our parishioners had grasped the opportunity to attend the Summit.

Summit 23 has left me feeling hopeful and excited for the future of the Catholic Church in our Archdiocese in a way that I haven’t felt for quite some time.

Next Sunday: 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Romans 5:12-15

Matthew 10:26-33

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

First Reading: Exodus 19:2-6 On eagles' wings God has borne us, enabling us to be a holy nation capable of bearing others.

Second Reading: Romans 5:6-11 As Christ is our reconciliation, so in him we are to be reconciliation in our world.

Gospel: Matthew 9:36-10:8 Jesus turns his compassion for the people into a ministry of healing, care and belonging for the sick, the dying and the ritually outcast. This is an apostolic church.

CHAPTER FIVE: LINES OF APPROACH AND ACTION

I. DIALOGUE ON THE ENVIRONMENT IN THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY

167. The 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro is worth mentioning. It proclaimed that "human beings are at the centre of concerns for sustainable development". [126] Echoing the 1972 Stockholm Declaration, it enshrined international cooperation to care for the ecosystem of the entire earth, the obligation of those who cause pollution to assume its costs, and the duty to assess the environmental impact of given projects and works. It set the goal of limiting greenhouse gas concentration in the atmosphere, in an effort to reverse the trend of global warming. It also drew up an agenda with an action plan and a convention on biodiversity, and stated principles regarding forests. Although the summit was a real step forward, and prophetic for its time, its accords have been poorly implemented, due to the lack of suitable mechanisms for oversight, periodic review and penalties in cases of non-compliance. The principles which it proclaimed still await an efficient and flexible means of practical implementation.
